

OIGC at the Office

Staff Development and Team Building Workshops

- Provide a unique experience for your employees
- Build confidence and camaraderie
- Celebrate differences and strengths
- Promote team discussions around cultural awareness

DID YOU KNOW? Singing releases endorphins, reducing both stress and anxiety. Singing as a group engages individuals and encourages teamwork, leading to happier, more productive employees.

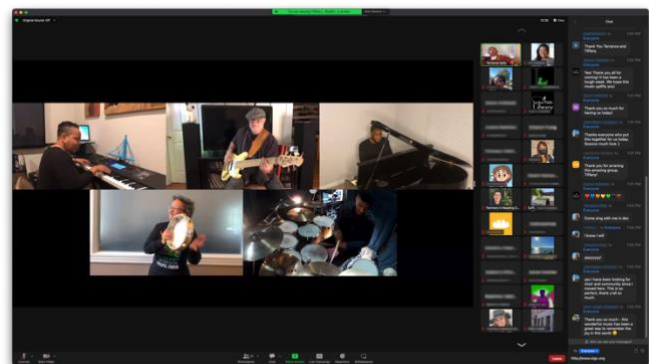

Workshops are customizable to your company's needs with pricing based on your budget, audience size, and preferred delivery method(s) to provide you with an excellent experience.

Visit www.oigc.org/attheoffice for details.

Examples of past workshops:

- A virtual concert hosted by Founding Artistic Director, Terrance Kelly, sharing the history and social context of gospel music within the African American experience
- A choir workshop where members build team skills through working in small groups within a vocal section, following a leader, and working together cross-functionally as different voice parts come together in harmony, bringing diverse individuals together for a collective purpose
- Film screening of ONE VOICE: The Story of the Oakland Interfaith Gospel Choir accompanied by a facilitated discussion around cultural awareness and celebrating differences while in a shared pursuit toward a common goal.

Terrance Kelly hosts a virtual Juneteenth Concert for the San Jose Public Library.

*"They aren't just songs; they are the history of black culture that does not discriminate but sees the soul behind the color of your skin."
"Bouncing into my next meeting after that - we're gonna make progress on some projects TODAY!!"
"Amazing the joy, energy and faith that is transmitted through this virtual event. Thank you!"*

The mission of the Oakland Interfaith Gospel Choir is to inspire joy and unity among all people through Black gospel and spiritual music traditions.
